"Game, set and match to McGuinty"

TORONTO, Sept. 21 /CNW/ - Here's what people are saying about Dalton McGuinty the morning after the Leader's Debate:

<<

"Game, set and match to McGuinty. Elections are about defining your opponent and last night's televised leaders' debate showed how skillfully Premier Dalton McGuinty has defined Conservative Party Leader John Tory.... Hampton acquitted himself well but he's not running for premier. Of the two men who are, McGuinty won."

- Lorrie Goldstein, Toronto Sun, Sep. 21, 2007

"McGuinty emerged as winner, readers say...His opponents ganged up on him, but according to 270 Star readers, Premier Dalton McGuinty came out above the other candidates in the debate. Star advisers, recruited this year to answer surveys on everything from the Star's new design to which leader they're rooting for in the provincial election, said the premier performed the best."

- Toronto Star, Sep. 21, 2007

"What we have is Dalton McGuinty fighting back in regards to standing up for his record..."

- Nick Nanos, SES Research, CPAC, Sep. 20, 2007

"McGuinty performed well, giving a good account of his record, especially in improving conditions in education and health care."

- Toronto Star, Sep. 21, 2007
